

ILLUMINATIONS

The Twenty-Second Sunday after Pentecost, Year B, October 25, 2015

for the First Lesson

Job responds to God's rebuke with the same loyalty that marked the beginning of his story. Job repents of his despair, and God showers him with new blessings.

A reading from the Book of Job 42:1-6, 10-17

Reader: The word of the Lord Congregation: Thanks be to God.

for the Second Lesson

Jesus, our great high priest, has made the required sacrifice once for all, and he intercedes for us down through eternity.

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews 7:23-28

Reader: The word of the Lord. Congregation: Thanks be to God.

for the Gospel Lesson

A blind beggar knows that Jesus has the authority to heal him, and he will not be silenced by the impatience of those around him. Jesus, responding to his zeal, restores his sight.

A reading from the Gospel according to Mark 10:46-52

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord. Congregation: Praise to you Lord Christ.

Stewardship Report

Sunday, October 18, 2015, was St. Luke's feast day. This day was chosen to begin the 2016 Stewardship program as St. Luke and the ox represents sacrifice and the traits of a Christian which one strives for in their gifts of Time, Talents and Treasures.

St. Luke the Evangelist

Writer of the Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles and a Physician Born in Antioch in Syria. The Patron Saint of physician's, surgeons, students, artists and butchers. St. Luke is associated with the Ox, a valuable animal often used in sacrifices and is a symbol of sacrifice - the sacrifice Jesus made for all.

Time: The next opportunity to give of your time at St. Luke's is the cleaning of the outside and inside of St. Luke's on Saturday, November 7th at 10:00 a.m. Janet Smith has a "to do" list for us and remember "many hands make for light work".

Talent: Participate in the Artisan and Bake Sale on December 5th to be held at St. Luke's from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Treasures: The Stewardship program is also about giving of your treasures to help support the financial needs of St. Luke's. This year Consecration Sunday will be on Sunday, November 8th with a thank you luncheon for all parishioners immediately following the service. The luncheon will be prepared by Chef Ed Tracey.

Please have the pledge cards returned for this special Sunday.
